

Dear Parents and Families,

The Scholastic Book Fair will be at our school October 20th through October 23rd and special Family Nights are scheduled for Tuesday, October 21st and Thursday, October 23rd.

The exciting theme for our 2014 Book Fair is Sir Readalot's Castle: Enter the Kingdom of Books. This season's Book Fair will be an exciting celebration full of fun and hundreds of books kids want to read.

We need your help to make this book fair a memorable event for the kingdom of Happy Valley. We are looking for royal people to lend a hand to plan and conduct our Book Fair.

Please go to the HVS blog at www.happyvalleyschool.org to pick a time to volunteer through our Sign Up Genius.
